Board of Supervisors Supports Officers in Tax Collections

The Saline County Board of Supervisors, in recessed meeting Saturday morning, discussed tax collections, particularly personal tax, and reaffirmed a standing policy of 100 per cent support to county officers in their efforts to make collections.

Chairman Kenneth Jackson read a letter received from the Saline County Farm Bureau requesting the board to see that proper means are taken to collect any delinquent taxes. The letter made special reference to personal taxes.

In the discussion that followed it was pointed out that the Board of Supervisors had always taken a stand to support the County Treasurer and Collector in his efforts to make collections.

Praise Farm Bureau

The letter also requested the Board of Supervisors to instruct the Board of Review to make effort to see that a just and proper assessment is made on all taxable property.

Chairman Jackson, who also is chairman of Board of Review, declared the Board of Review had every intention of fulfilling its duties and remarked that the Board had been in session only a short time. "We shouldn't be criticized until we have completed our job. Then, if we have failed, it is proper that we should be criticized, but not before," Jackson said.

A motion was made and seconded that a letter be forwarded to the Farm Bureau thanking the organization for its interest in the county tax problem and giving the Farm Bureau the true facts. The motion was unanimously approved.

A motion also carried directing the Collector, State's Attorney and Sheriff to do their duties, as provided by law, to collect all taxes due and the Board will be 100 per cent in support of the officers in carrying out their duties.

The first order of business was to vote on a motion that was before the board at the time it recessed Thursday afternoon.

Approve Two Motions

The motion was that "No member be appointed to the Saline County Housing Authority from a township where that township has a member still serving on said board." The motion was approved 12-2.

A similar motion, with reference to the Egyptian Health Authority, was the final business on the calendar and it was approved 8-4.

In other action the Board approved the transfer of funds from accounts with a surplus to other accounts needing money to complete the year's business, authorized the Finance committee to contact the auditing firm of Bedel and Rice to complete the 1956 audit of the county records, allowed election claims for the Judicial election held in June and authorized Treasurer Maynard Cannon to make partial settlements with various taxing bodies in the county.

Account transfers: $350 from the Contingent fund to Fund 49 (oil, tires and service of county cars); $30,000 from Fee Earned to General fund.

$1,129 from Election fund to Fund 49.

A pedestrian, Mrs. Martin Haygood, 27, Chicago, was killed Sunday when a car went out of control on South Lake Shore Drive. Authorities sought the driver who fled the scene of the accident.

Three Brothers Charged With Murdering New Haven Man

Free Girl from Plane With Dead Parents, Pilot

ALLIANCE, Neb. (U.P.)—A Civil Air Patrol official today blamed a delay in reporting a missing aircraft for the ordeal of a 17-year-old girl trapped for 37 hours in the wreckage of a plane with her dead parents and the pilot.

The girl, Judy Diehl, Cozad, Neb., was rescued Sunday and sped to a hospital here where physicians said she was in fair condition and in good spirits.

Miss Diehl suffered a fractured leg, shock, cuts and bruises when the light plane in which she, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Diehl, and the pilot, Milo German, 55, also of Cozad, were riding nosed into the ground in barren sandhill country near here.

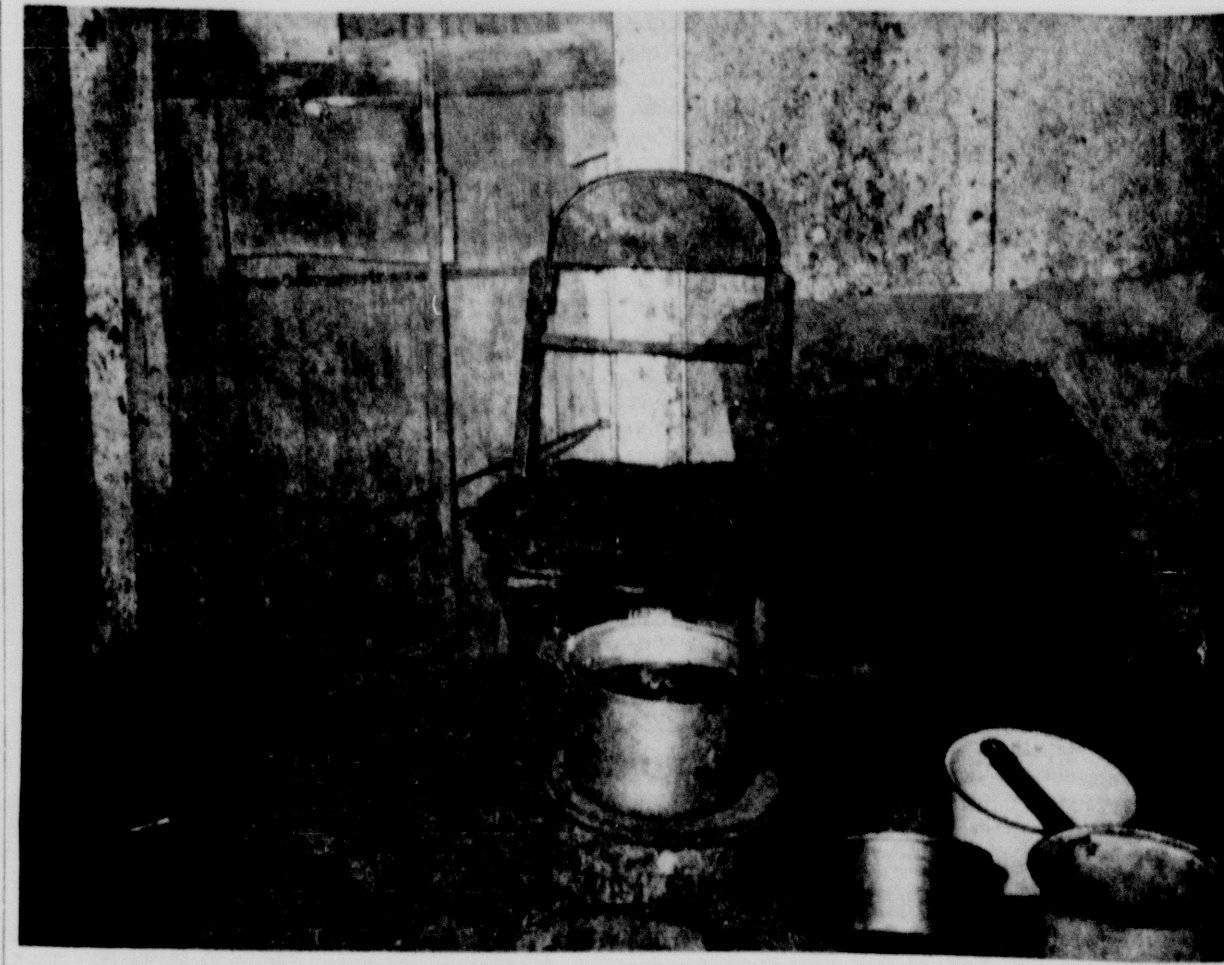

The Diehls and German, owner of a plastics firm, apparently were killed instantly. Judy was unable to move because of her injuries. She attracted the attention of rescue planes by waving a white scarf.

She said the plane left Alliance about 8:30 p. m. Friday en route to Cozad, but flew into a storm and attempted to return to Alliance.

"I remember the plane going down," she told rescuers. "The next thing I knew I woke up in the wreckage."

Her only food during the time she was trapped was one banana. She managed to catch some rainwater to drink.

At Omaha, Jim Grove, commander of the Nebraska wing of the CAP, criticized the search and rescue operation. He said he was not notified that the plane was missing until about noon Sunday, although it crashed Friday night.

THIS IS THE FRONT PORCH CHAIR at the Vinson York home near New Haven, Ill., where the 73-year-old man was reported to have been peeling potatoes when he was fatally wounded by a shotgun blast late Friday. Sheriff Millard Holloway of Gallatin county said York, after the incident, walked to the home of Bud Thompson nearby and told Thompson he had been shot by Ray Mears, also of near New Haven.

Weather Balloon to Be Turned Over to Science Classes

A weather balloon found last week 15 miles south of Harrisburg was brought to this city where science students will observe it this fall.

It was found on the Cecil Barger farm, and was left untouched in a field until authorities in Harrisburg were notified.

Making the trip to the Barger farm were Ray Altmire, director of Civil Defense; Louie Beltz, assistant director; and Sheriff William T. Barrett.

They brought the balloon to Harrisburg, and here State Policeman Guthrie Alexander had state police headquarters contact the U. S. Army. The Army asked only for the serial number and where it was found, stating that it did not want the balloon.

The balloon, which carried weather instruments, was parachuted to the ground.

Mr. Altmire, who said Mr. Beltz had the balloon and data, declared that it would be studied in science classes this fall.

Vote August 28 on Proposal for Community Unit School District

Jack Large, principal of the Galatia Community high school, has been notified by C. R. Gardner, county superintendent of schools, that August 28, 1957, has been designated as the election date for the purpose of voting for or against a community unit school district for the Galatia community.

A hearing on the petition for the unit district was held in the office of the county superintendent at 9 a. m. on Monday, July 15. The county superintendent called for testimony for and against the petition but no testimony was given against it. Therefore, he granted the petition and set the election date in accordance with the state laws governing school elections of this nature.

Principal Large points out that the financial condition of the Galatia Community High School District is such that immediate relief is necessary. The district has an indebtedness resulting from the purchase of school buses in 1952 and 1953. Each year the district must issue anticipation warrants on taxes to be received the following year in order to meet its obligations.

"Due to rising costs of education, brought about by mandatory salary increases for teachers and higher prices for equipment and supplies, the district will be unable to operate during the coming school year without going further into deficit spending. This, of course, is not sound business practice," Large states.

"Several inquiries have been made concerning the high school's ability to improve its buildings and grounds while unable to pay better salaries for teachers and expand its curriculum. Many people do not realize that there is a separate fund for buildings and grounds and that money from this fund cannot be spent for educational purposes. The school's building fund is in good condition and presents no problem at this time. It is the educational fund which is in dire need of additional revenue.

"The election to be held on August 28 will be a major factor in determining the future of the Galatia high school. It would take two tax increases to produce the revenue which will be received from the increase in state aid offered under the unit district. In Mr. Large's opinion the school cannot continue to operate for an extensive period of time unless the voters choose one of these two alternatives. The unit district must be formed or taxes must be raised. Perhaps it is unnecessary to point out that closing the school would result in a great deal of hardship and inconvenience to the students and lower property values in the district."

Notice of the coming election will be published in the Daily Register at a later date.

Four Months Imprisonment

Sentence Airman for Balking at Getting 'White Sidewall' Haircut

FUCHU, Japan (U.P.)—A court martial board found a young American airman guilty of disobeying an order in refusing to get a "white-sidewall" haircut and sentenced him to four months imprisonment at hard labor.

The board also reduced Airman 3-C Donald Wheeler of Cortez, Colo., to the rank of airman basic (private) and fined him $50 monthly for four months.

"I do not think this is fair," Wheeler said as he choked back the tears after the sentencing.

The 20-year-old Wheeler balked at getting the haircut — one with shaved sides and a fringe on the top—while a member of the honor guard at the U.N.-Far East Command headquarters at Pershing Heights in downtown Tokyo.

The four-month sentence given Wheeler conceivably could be stiffer, than the one Specialist 3-C William S. Girard may receive from a Japanese court if he is found guilty of manslaughter in the shooting and killing of a Japanese woman. There has been some speculation the Japanese court may give Girard a suspended sentence.

"This is a miscarriage of justice," said Wheeler's civilian attorney, Murray Sprung of New York. He had asked the court to give Wheeler as light a sentence as possible.

Wheeler will be confined for the four months at the stockade at Fifth Air Force headquarters here. The sentence will be reviewed by a board of review.

Three of the four officers on the board turned up at the final day of the court sporting new haircuts. They deliberated 43 minutes before returning a verdict.

Wheeler had termed the white sidewall haircut "ridiculous" and said it made him look "idiotic" and like a "shaved jackass."

The prosecutor, 1st Lt. William D. Pridgen of Kings Tree, S. C., said the haircut had nothing to do with it. He said the airman refused to obey an order and he took the court on a verbal tour of Valley Forge, Pearl Harbor and the fighting in Germany and France to show the seriousness of the offense.

"The men who fought for our country at Valley Forge, Pearl Harbor, France and Germany did not disobey orders," he said.

Ray, Hallis and Robert Mears in Gallatin Jail

Preliminary Hearing Will Be Held On July 29

Three brothers living in the New Haven area are held in the Gallatin county jail on charges of murdering Vinson York, 73, of near New Haven, who died late Friday in an ambulance en route to a hospital in Eldorado.

Gallatin County Sheriff Millard Holloway said York died of shotgun wounds in the chest, shoulder and face.

State's Attorney Alton Greer of Gallatin county said that the murder charges were filed Saturday night against Ray, Hallis and Robert Mears, brothers.

He added that when arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. S. Sanders on the charges, they asked for preliminary hearing, which will be held at 10 a. m. Monday, July 29, before Sanders.

Autopsy Performed Greer stated, when asked if any statements had been made admitting the slaying, that statements are in a fluid stage, are indefinite and are being studied.

However, Sheriff Holloway stated Saturday that when he found York in a dying state at the home of Bud Thompson, Thompson said York told him that Ray Mears had done the shooting.

Charles Cox, Gallatin county coroner, said this morning that an autopsy had been performed on York Saturday afternoon by Dr. John E. Doyle of Ridgway to recover shot from the face and body.

Hallis and Robert Mears were picked up for questioning a short time after the shooting but an all-night search was conducted by Gallatin county officers and state policemen in mosquito-infested hotland near New Haven for Ray Mears, described as 26 years old, five feet, 11 inches tall and weighing about 170 pounds.

Feuding For Some Time However, Ray gave himself up to Gallatin county officers at Shawneetown Saturday.

Sheriff Holloway said York and Ray Mears had been feuding and State's Attorney Greer confirmed that York a short time ago had signed a complaint charging Ray Mears with driving while intoxicated.

Holloway said Mears had borrowed a shotgun at the home of John Mobley and a few minutes later Mrs. Mobley heard a gunshot. Holloway said the gun was returned a short time afterward by Hallis Mears.

The funeral of Mr. York was held at 2 p. m. today at the Cox funeral chapel in New Haven with the Rev. Henry Davis conducting the service.

Student Nurse Tortured Two Hours by Sadist

SAN FRANCISCO (U.P.)—Police broadcast an alarm throughout northern California today for a man who raped a pretty student nurse, then abused her with implements he carried in a well prepared "torture kit."

The incident took place early Sunday in Golden Gate Park while the nurse's husky escort, James Lonergan, 26, lay bound and gagged in his car. Lonergan finally managed to crawl free and shout for help.

The 19-year-old victim was treated at Central Emergency Hospital. Between fits of hysterical sobbing, she told police the story of two hours of terror.

Lonergan and the student nurse were returning late Saturday night from a dinner date. He stopped his car on a busy street bordering Golden Gate Park to check a possible gas leak.

As he climbed back into the car, a young man approached him and put a knife at his back.

"I want no trouble, only your wallet," the man said.

He climbed into the rear seat and ordered Lonergan to drive into the park. Lonergan complied.

From a cardboard kit box, the man drew a roll of adhesive tape. He bound Lonergan's hands and feet with it. Then he taped his eyes.

The stranger ordered the girl into the rear seat. He taped her wrists behind her. From his kit box, he withdrew a chain or metal shackles with which he bound her feet.

The girl struggled violently. The man struck her, blackening one of her eyes.

Then, she said later, he attacked her twice.

Removing a pair of scissors from his kit, the man cut off the girl's hair almost to scalp level. He beat her with his belt.

"Scream!" he exulted. "Yell that it hurts! I want to hear you scream with pain!"

He burned her arm and back with a cigarette. Then he sat still for a long time, possibly a half-hour.

"I'm going to give each of you an injection," he said finally. The couple felt a flick of pain, but they believed it was from the point of the man's knife. Then the man walked away.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Dictator Trujillo Wants Himself Investigated By Top New York Lawyers; Dave Beck Still Gives Teamsters The Run-Around; Head Of Bankers' Lobby Gets His Reward.

WASHINGTON. — Diplomatic circles are buzzing over a dramatic move contemplated by Ambasador De Moya and Dictator Trujillo of the Dominican Republic.

They are negotiating with two top New York lawyers, plus a prominent public relations expert to have them make a tough, thorough investigation of the alleged murder of Prof. Jesus Galindez, who disappeared while a teacher at Columbia University, and is reported to have been spirited back to Trujillo City.

The proposal is that if these two lawyers find Trujillo is guilty in any way connected with the crime, they are to say so. But if the attorneys find Trujillo is not guilty they shall so report. They are to have a free hand to hire detectives, investigators or anyone else to probe the matter thoroughly.

The two proposed attorneys are Morris Ernst, counsel for the Civil Liberties Union; and retired N. Y. Supreme Court Justice William H. Munson. The public relations expert approached by the Dominican embassy is Sydney Baron of New York, who in turn picked the toughest attorney he could find.

Because of the incorruptible crusading caliber of the men involved, diplomats here are flabbergasted at the daring of the Dominican government in putting the reputation of the most publicized dictator in the Western Hemisphere in the hands of three men.

Judge Munson, a lifelong Republican, a former district attorney in Buffalo, is the man who put labor racketeer Joe Fay in jail.
He was also called upon to judge the legality of Mayor Impellitteri's race in New York City. Ernst, a Democrat, was a close adviser to FDR, has written many books on civil liberties. If they find Trujillo not involved in the Galindez murder and other charges, it will be difficult for anyone successfully to refute them. It will be interesting to see what happens.

Senator McClellan of Arkansas has been subpoenaing prostitutes from all over the U. S. A. to testify against labor leaders. He might well delve into the structure of certain unions, particularly the Teamsters, to show how difficult it is for union members to have any power.

The other day A. E. Collins, a member of Teamsters Local 81 in Portland, telegraphed honest John English, secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters and an anti-Beck leader, asking for a hearing before the executive board of the Teamsters to show why the officers of Local 81 should not be removed and a new election held.

Real fact is that Portland Local 81 has never been allowed to elect its own officers since it was formed two years ago. It has been headed by a "trusteeship" appointed by Beck. The trustee is Clyde Crosby, who in turn appoints all the local's officers.
These must be paid $8,800 each by the local. Under present rules, these Beck-sponsored officers will represent Local 81 at the Teamsters International convention later this summer.

That was why Collins wired honest John English.

However, under union rules, this petition had to be referred to Dave Beck. Accordingly, English wrote on June 28 that the letter had been so referred. On June 30 Collins wired Beck you got no reply. On July 5 he sent Beck a second wire. Again no reply.

The election of Teamster convention delegates is slated for July 21. As of this writing, it looks as if Portland Local 81 will fail to get the right to elect its own delegates, and will be represented by Dave Beck's stooges instead.

BANKER'S LOBBY REWARDED
The American public has to be really on the alert to catch all the backstages moves in Washington.
When Erle Cocke, Sr., of Atlanta, Ga., was appointed to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, most people didn't know it was a payoff.

Early last winter, the Eisenhower administration was under the gun of a threatened penetrating investigation by one of the most eagle-eyed finance probes of Capitol Hill — Congressman Wright Patman of Texas. Patman had sharpened his ax for a real probe of inflation, which many think is the most serious fault of the Eisenhower administration.

Patman had the backing of the most powerful man in the House of Representatives, Speaker Sam Rayburn. But for some strange reason southern Democrats switched. They voted not with their two southern colleagues, Speaker Rayburn and Wright Patman, but with the Eisenhower administration.

Reason was that a deluge of southern bankers swarmed through the lobbies of Capitol Hill.

The man who masterminded this backstage lobby for Eisenhower against southern Democrats was able Erle Cocke, Sr., president of the Fulton National Bank of Atlanta, Ga. As a result, Eisenhower won.

Erle Cocke, Sr., has now been rewarded.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Both Eisenhower and Nixon have urged Senator Knowland to reconsider his decision to quit the Senate. They said he was needed in Washington, should not run for governor of California thereby precipitating a bitter battle with popular Gov. Goodwin Knight. Knowland politely told them that he had made up his mind. . . . Gen. John Medaris, commander of the Army Ballistics Missile base at Huntsville, Ala., has been getting the silent 'treat' sent from many of his own officers. They are fed up with him for giving the cold shoulder to Col. John Nickerson on the witness stand during the Nickerson court-martial. They feel General Medaris knowtowed to the high brass in Washington and deserted a valiant fighter for the Army.
As a result several officers now refuse to speak to Medaris except strictly in the line of duty. The moral problem is so serious Med-aris may have to be transferred.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor of Mountain township and returned to MAY-NARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value.
Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1957 taxes, payable in 1958, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Exiled to Still Rumors

Princess Margaret's Boyfriend, Lord Beresford, is Transferred to Cyprus

LONDON (EP) — Lord Patrick Beresford, favorite escort of Princess Margaret during the current season, has been transferred to Cyprus in move expected to still reports that they might become engaged.

He is the second of the Princess' boyfriends to be sent abroad. The first was Group Capt. Peter Townsend who was named air attache at the British Embassy in Brussels when news of their romance filled the gossip columns.

Beresford's "exile" brought the tart comment from the London Daily Express today that "being a friend of the princess seems to be a qualification these days for a ticket to far off places."

Will Solve Problem

The 23-year-old Beresford, nearly four years, Margaret's junior, is a lieutenant in the Royal Horse Guards Regiment. British sources said his assignment abroad will solve a palace problem since constant association of his name with the princess has caused acute embarrassment.

Rumors of their engagement grew so strong last week that dozens of reporters camped out in front of Buckingham Palace thru the night in expectation of getting an early morning announcement. But there was none and it was learned later Beresford was at his ancestral home in Ireland at the time.

Informed sources said the "exile" of young Lord Patrick and that of Townsend was far different. Townsend was sent to Brussels from his post as an envoy to the royal household because the romance strained the strict British royal protocol which forbids royal marriages with divorced persons.

Young and Handsome

Beresford remains highly eligible. He is young, handsome, titled and there is no taint of divorce. He has huge land holdings and is independent, wealthy. A marriage into the royal family probably would bring him a higher title.

Beresford has been Margaret's constant escort this season at parties, theaters and race meetings. He stayed with the royal family at Windsor Castle during Ascot Race week and later dated the princess as often as three times a week.

Then word spread that Beresford had been invited to a private dinner party being given by Queen Elizabeth II last week to welcome home Queen Mother Elizabeth from an African tour. This sounded like a "meet the family" occasion and rumors of the impending engagement spread.

Words and pictures convey ideas to other people. In fact human beings depend almost entirely on these means for communicating with other persons. However, we find that practically every word in our language has several meanings.

Double or multiple meanings create confusion or misunderstanding. We must learn to use words so that the speaker and the listener envisage the same picture. We must keep our conversation mutually understandable. We may have to define terms in order to create similar viewpoints in the minds of ourselves and others.

God speaks to man clearly.

Aug. 1 Final Date For Disposal of Excess Acreage

Herman Driskell, chairman of the Saline County ASC committee, stated today that August 1 is the final date for farmers to dispose of excess corn acreage in order to attain price support eligibility or soil bank compliance. All farmers who have corn acreage reserve agreements should make certain that their corn acreage is within the permitted acreage as set forth on the agreement. Failure to meet this requirement means loss of payment plus liability for a civil penalty.

Likewise, all farmers interested in price support for corn should make certain that their corn acreage is within the allotment by the August 1st date. Most farmers who cooperated with our reporters have already received official notice of their acreages and therefore know where they stand. Should such notice have been delayed through no fault of the farmer, a limited extension of time, for disposition of excess corn, beyond the established August 1st date may be granted by this office.

Farmers who refused to permit measurement or who indicated they but we often choose to misunderstand. It would be well for us to seek God's will and His viewpoint so that we shall understand Him. We must not allow conflict to exist between man and his Creator.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor of Carrier Mills township and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1957 taxes, payable in 1958, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor of Independence township and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1957 taxes, payable in 1958, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Rejects Demands for Probe of Charges of Marine Base Brutality

WASHINGTON (C) — Chairman Carl Vinson of the House Armed Services Committee said today he has rejected a demand for a congressional investigation of new charges of brutality at the Parris Island, S. C., Marine training base. The Georgia Democrat said he is convinced the Marines are taking action to "completely eradicate" abuses previously disclosed at Parris Island.

The American Civil Liberties Union charged Sunday night there was "widespread" brutality at the base from Jan. 1 to May 1, 1956. It called on the House and Senate Armed Services committees to in-

MEET MISS UNIVERSE—Gladys Zender, 17-year-old Peruvian beauty, wears the crown of Miss Universe after her "coronation" at Long Beach, Calif. First Latin-American girl ever to win the contest, she is the daughter of a wealthy Lima, Peru, paper manufacturer. Closely chaperoned in the old Spanish tradition, she may refuse the $10,000 world tour that goes with the title. Vital statistics: 36-23 1/2-36.

Awaits More Investigation

Ohio Governor Calls Off Lie Detector Test for Dr. Sheppard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill today called off a scheduled lie-detector test for Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard until the "truthfulness" of a Florida convict's confession that he killed Mrs. Sheppard can be checked.

O'Neill cancelled the test for the convicted wife slayer after receiving a telegram from the "Court of Last Resort" which is conducted by mystery writer Erle Stanley Gardner and a national magazine.

The telegram said:

"We are still not prepared to accept as true the confession of Donald Wedler, but following our examination of him in Florida, we admit to a growing conviction that he may well have committed the murder of Marilyn Sheppard."

"However, no one should form any final opinion on this man (Wedler) until after there has been a lot more investigative work done and until there has been a psychiatric examination."

"There are some very important major conflicts between his story and existing facts."

"These conflicts may have been the result of drug reactions and an attempt to rationalize his acts or just plain deception."

The governor said he discussed

County Treasurer's extra clerk hire.

The Board also approved a $200 payment to the Harrisburg Humane Society. The payment will be from the General Fund. It was pointed out the state Rabies law provides the county should maintain a dog pound at all present all townships in Saline county are receiving service from the Harrisburg pound and it was considered only right and fair that the entire county should contribute to its maintenance and upkeep.

County Clerk Don Garrison was authorized to use $3,000 from the Fee Earned account to hire extra help needed in copying the assessment books. This is the year for the quadrennial copying of all assessors books, Garrison said.

Treasurer Cannon, in requesting permission to start making partial settlements, pointed out the 1956 audit had not been completed and there were some tax objections still in litigation and he preferred to not make partial settlements without authority from the Board of Supervisors. The request was approved.

A delegation, headed by Bruce Burnett, was present from Eldorado. Mr. Burnett stated the group was present in the interest of all parts of the county being represented on various boards and pledged support to the Board of Supervisors in its work to benefit Saline county.

Chairman Jackson, when the meeting opened, stated it was a recess meeting and he believed the members should not receive pay for the Saturday session. All members approved the suggestion.

Angry Housewives Battle Bats with Brooms and Mops

HERRIN, Ill. (C) — Angry and frightened housewives went to bat with brooms and mops against bats during the weekend and scored 60 kills.

Police Chief Roy Cole said one woman was bitten as the bats invaded the hallways and three apartments in a downtown apartment building.

Cole said the bats had apparently been entering the attic of the building through a crack in the masonry. When the crack was sealed, the bats fluttered down through the walls and crevices trying to find their way outside.

They swished through rooms and into hallways for a day and a half. Mop and broom-swinging tenants lowered the boom on the invaders.

An exterminating company has been called in to do the mop-up work on the bats.

Eight Teen-Agers On Joy Ride Are Killed by Train

SOMERSET, Ky. (C) — Eight teen-agers out for a Sunday afternoon joyride were killed near here Sunday when a slow-moving freight train rammed their old model car at a railroad crossing.

Pulaski County Coroner Kenneth Gibbs said crewmen on the Southern Railway freight said the car, traveling about 35-40 miles per hour, "didn't seem to hesitate when it mounted the tracks."

Authorities said the car apparently stalled momentarily on the tracks at the crossing before the southbound train struck it. The train, traveling at about 50 miles per hour, came to a stop about a half mile from the crash scene.

The victims were identified as Charles Simmons, 16, the driver of the car; Ronald Davis, 17; James Richards, 16; Betty Bray, 15; James Calhoun, 12; and Charles Allen, 13, and his sisters, Frances, 14, and Josephine, 15. All were Somerset residents.

Three of the victims were thrown clear when the train struck the 1941 model sedan. The other five were trapped in the jalopy which burst into flames.

Novelist Kenneth Roberts Dies

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (C) — Funeral services will be held Tuesday for Kenneth Roberts, Pulitzer-citation winning historical novelist whose books made the best seller lists eight times.

Roberts, 71, died Sunday of coronary thrombosis, at his home, after being ill for several weeks.

His wife, Anne Seiberling Mosser, whom he married in 1911, was at his bedside. They had no children.

Cleveland authorities were skeptical of Wedler's story but Coroner Samuel R. Gerber, a key figure in building the state's case against Sheppard, planned to go to Florida to question Wedler.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Ross Mitchell, who died July 22, 1956:

A face I loved the best,
And think of him when the sun's last ray

Goes down in the far-off west,
I miss you no less as the time passes on

Than I did on the day of your going,
For absence can never close the door of my heart

And the lamp of my love is still glowing,
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,

Your love the best to recall;
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.
Sadly missed by his wife and children. *20-1

Reds Back in Running with Double Sweep Over Phillies; Braves Retain 1-Game Lead

By United Press

The Cincinnati Redlegs were being counted out of the National League race a week ago but they're right back in the thick of it today because of their surprising ability to cope with double headers.

The experts figured Birdie Tobbetts' "patch work" pitching staff would buckle under the pressure of the bargain bills.

The Redlegs, however, roared back into solid contention when they whipped the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2 and 6-4, Sunday and now show a remarkable .818 win-loss record for double-headers.

The latest sweep — giving the Redlegs seven wins in nine games since they ended a seven-game losing streak on July 12 — lifted the Redlegs into fourth place, two games behind the first-place Braves. The Phillies, jolted by six losses in their last seven games, fell 3½ games off the pace.

Braves Bounce Back

The Braves bounced back from a 5-4 loss to the New York Giants, 7-4, and retain their one-game lead over the Dodgers who beat the Chicago Cubs, 7-2, after a 5-4 setback, while the third-place St. Louis Cardinals downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3, and led, 11-2, when their nightcap was suspended in the ninth inning by the Pennsylvania curfew law.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Boston Red Sox, 3-0, and moved to within 4½ games of first place in the American League when the New York Yankees split a double-header with the Cleveland Indians. The Yankees won the opener, 4-3, but bowed in the nightcap, 7-4, before 51,670 fans. The Detroit Tigers beat the Washington Senators, 6-5, and the Kansas City Athletics scored a 3-2 victory after losing, 7-2, to the Baltimore Orioles in other AL games.

Brooks Lawrence gained credit for his 11th win for the Redlegs in the opener with the aid of homers by George Crowe and Gus Bell and Art Fowler picked up his first win in the nightcap as Ted Kluszewski, Wally Post and Roy McMillan had three hits each. Roberts in Roberts was tagged with his seventh straight loss and 13th of the year while Harvey Haddix dropped his seventh decision.

Shortstop Johnny Logan lashed out five straight hits to spark the Braves to their victory after Hank Sauer's two-run, ninth-inning single enabled the Giants to take the opener. Willie Mays and Ray Jablonski homered to kayo Lew Burdette in the nightcap but Ernie Johnson came on to win his sixth game. Stu Miller won his fourth game for the Giants.

Clem Labine pitched five shut-out relief innings to notch his fifth victory for the Dodgers after homers by Walt Moryn, Chuck Tanner and Lee Walls helped hand Carl Erskine his second defeat. Moe Drabowsky, celebrating his 22nd birthday, won his sixth game for the Cubs although he needed help in the late innings.

Don Blasingame knocked in four runs to spark the Cardinals in their opener and Ken Boyer, Ed Kaska and pitcher Lindy McDaniel had four hits each in the suspended nightcap which will be completed Aug. 27. The Cardinals had one out in the ninth when the second game was suspended.

Jim Wilson followed up Saturday's one-hitter by Dick Donovan with a three-hitter that gave the White Sox their second straight shutout victory over the Red Sox. Wilson had a no-hitter for six innings before Frank Malzone broke the spell with a single and scored his 10th win.

Avila Sparks Tribe
Bob Avila's bases-filled triple in the sixth inning was the big blow for the Indians who played before their biggest home crowd in two years. Homers by Gil McDougald and Elston Howard plus Bob Grim's classy relief job gave the Yankees the opener and they led into the last of the sixth of the nightcap with the help of Mickey Mantle's 25th homer of the year. Ray Narleski, relief ace of the Tribe, went all the way in the second game to win his sixth game.

Lionel Hebert Wins PGA Title

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The biggest gamble Lionel Hebert ever made paid off today—with the PGA golf championship.

The 29-year-old golfer from the bayou country of Louisiana gave up his job as a club pro at Erie, Pa., a year ago, determined "to make a name for myself."

He did it Sunday when he defeated the 27-year-old Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, 2 and 1, in the 36-hole final match for the $8,000 first-place money that goes to the winner of this five-day match play grind.

And he did it like a champion, too. Having breakfast with his brother Jay, who is five years older, on Wednesday before teeing off in the first round, he promised, "I'm going to win this one." He did—while Jay finished seventh—a difference of $6,500.

"I didn't have a very good time," Nan was saying, her lips pouted with a remnant of discontent for that spoiled evening. "Ben was acting—silly. Because I'd asked him, you see? He thought it implied that I wanted to be with him."

"So when we danced, he held me much too close and wanted to put his chin down into my neck—and finally I suggested that we walk out on the pier. I knew he'd be silly there, too, but at least we'd be away from all those others, and I could tell him off! So we went out through the veranda, and I saw Valley watching us."

"But I remember I was being more concerned with my full red skirt than anything else when Ben suddenly grabbed me—" She turned and looked earnestly at Garde. "Ben, you know, was the kind of guy to think a girl expected to be kissed whenever she was alone with a man. I don't know that Ben had had much experience with girls. But—well—either he'd heard men say or he'd read that a man must make certain gestures. Anyway, it happened that when someone, I'm sure by accident, turned on the floodlights, Ben was kissing me. And I was letting him. It was the only thing to do, I thought. Just to stand there and let him. And that's what I was doing, but of course when the lights went on, everybody saw us."

"It was really terrible, Garde. I felt—oh, just awful! All shamed and crawling at the way the thing must have looked. I felt sure that Kurt would know just exactly what was happening, that Ben had made this pass and that I'd stood still rather than make a tussle out of it. But there still was that tableau for everyone to see. Up on the veranda, people cheered and laughed and clapped—and—oh, you know the kind of thing they do. Usually it's fun. But that night

"Almost immediately the lights went off again, but I wanted to jump in the water and drown. I didn't feel that I could ever face that crowd again because of the awful thing I'd let happen to Kurt."

"And yet, I wanted to go directly to him; I knew that those others were saying plenty to him. Razzing, teasing, joshing—what ever they might call it. Our engagement was known. And so there wasn't anything for me to do but go back..."

"As we came up toward the veranda, I do remember Valley's face. And Kurt's—he came down the steps to meet us, and... Oh, it wasn't a fight, Garde!"

"Kurt said something about Ben's having taken advantage of my friendliness, and Ben answered that it was right nice work too, old man—or something like that—and Kurt slapped his face. It was an openhanded slap, you could hear the smack of it, for every thing had gone dead still. And it was a hard-enough slap to knock Ben into the water."

"Kurt didn't watch to see if Ben could get out or did get out, he just took my arm and we went up the steps, through the veranda and lounge and out to the car, and he took me home, his face stern."

"I had felt sure that Kurt would know that Ben was being only silly—but pretty soon I began to seethe. I remembered what I had seen down on that same pier between him and Valley only a few nights before..."

"What about Dr. Tom?" he asked. "I suppose there was talk about what happened at the club, about Kurt's slapping Ben—and if the old man had taken a position on that earlier trouble with the boy..."

"Oh," said Nan quickly, "I'm sure there's nothing in that line of thought, Garde."

"But—suppose the town did talk. I don't really know, because I didn't leave the house. I'd caught a little cold, and I—well—I felt as if I had a dozen things wrong with me. The cold gave me an excuse to stay in my room. I didn't go to church on Sunday morning, and Monday was a holiday—it rained all that day."

"Besides, I had decided that I must break my engagement to Kurt. I knew that he loved Valley, and—"

"Did you love him, Nan?" He had never questioned whether Kurt Lillard loved Nan, or why he only would have asked how the man could have preferred another girl..."

Nan answered him soberly and thoughtfully. "I loved him—in my

State to Accept Applications for Deer Hunting Permits in 33 Counties

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—The state Conservation Department announced today it will start accepting applications for deer hunting permits for the first open deer season in Illinois in 57 years.

Dates for the deer season, authorized by the 1957 Legislature, will be Oct. 1-15 for bow and arrow hunters, and Nov. 1-3 for shotgun hunters.

Hunting will be permitted in 33 counties, 7 of them in northwest Illinois, 15 in the west-central part of the state and 11 in southern Illinois.

The department estimated a total of 15,000 shotgun hunting permits will be issued. The minimum for one county will be 200, and the maximum 800, depending on the deer population in each county.

Shotgun hunters will be restricted to one county and are asked to specify on their applications what county they want to hunt in. They also should list a second choice.

When more applications are received than the quota of permits for a county, a drawing will be held to determine those to receive the permits.

The permit fee will be $5. Each hunter also must possess a regular hunting license.

Here are the counties where deer hunting will be permitted: Jo Davies, Stephenson, Winnebago, Carroll, Ogle, Whiteside, Lee, Putnam, Marshall, Mercer, Henderson, Warren, Hancock, Fulton, Adams, Schuyler, Mason, Pike, Cass, Morgan, Scott, Calhoun, Jackson, Williamson, Saline, Gallatin, Union, Johnson, Pope, Hardin, Alexander, Pulaski and Massac.

Pro Grid Star Fatally Shot

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Roy Barni, nationally known football star, died today of bullet wounds inflicted on him while he was trying to settle a row between two patrons of his tavern.

Barni, 29, died in San Francisco Hospital after undergoing emergency hospital treatment. The three bullets entered his right chest, left lower abdomen and right thigh.

Held in the shooting was James O. Invirizzi, 62, a truck driver and old friend of Barni. Police charged him with suspicion of murder.

The shooting took place late Sunday night in front of Barni's Marina district tavern "The Huddle."

The pro footballer played with the Philadelphia Eagles, the Chicago Cardinals and last year as defensive back with the Washington Redskins.

way, Garde. He's older, you know, and I admired him, oh, tremendously."

"What did you mean about 'your way of love'?"

"Oh, you know, Garde. Hope chests and babies—delphinium on the dinner table..."

He heard the deep sigh which Nan drew.

"Then—only three days later—it was on Tuesday—Ben was found dead on the pier, just about where Kurt had slapped him."

"At the trial, Kurt said that he'd driven into the club grounds that night, and just as he did he heard a shot from down on the pier. He went down and found a man lying there, with a cut throat. Being a doctor, it didn't occur to him not to examine him, and he found out at once that it was Ben and that he was—dead."

"At the inquest—or maybe it was at the hearing—Valley said she too had heard the shot. That she'd been coming down across your yard toward the pier—and she heard it."
